WOMEN OF THE CHURCH NEWS by Pat Hiott-Mason

DECORATOR TEAM TRANSFORMS CHURCH BATHROOM

Christy Cabaniss and Chris Iseman teamed up and transformed the very small bathroom at the back of our church sanctuary into an interior-design redo miracle. After scraping, washing, and painting the walls and cabinets, adding a wraparound mirror, new ceiling light fixture, and an attractive framed print it is something to be proud of. Thank you, Christy and Chris, for your time and talent given to our church. For tours of this renovation, see Pat Hiott-Mason after the Sunday church service.

KNEE FRIENDLY

Do your knees feel better when you kneel for communion? Well, they should because the cushions have been restuffed with a material that is more knee friendly. There you go—your Women of the Church’s silent auction purchase dollars at work. It is a nice gift to the knees of our congregation.

FOR THE BRIDES

Everyone loves our balcony overlooking the garden off of the “Brides Room” on the second floor of 44 Queen. After Lynn Riebe found new cushions and Chris Iseman sprayed the wicker furniture, it is even more romantic a place for photo opportunities.
Something new is in the works for this year’s Advent season! Be sure to visit 44 Queen during Advent to see our first Chrismon tree. More than a dozen ladies at our church are working on cross-stitched ornaments for the tree. These are not ordinary Christmas ornaments, but are Christian symbols.

We appreciate all those who have already completed their ornaments, and look forward to receiving others. They will all be framed and ready to hang on the tree by the beginning of Advent.
Christy Cabaniss gave a tour to these students from the class of Professor Suarez, Department of Religious and Ethical Studies at Meredith College in Raleigh, N. C. Christy is wearing a handmade dress, which is a French Polonaise popular with ladies in Charleston in the 1750s.

The Henry Erben organ is used the third Sunday of every month.

SOME OF THE WOMEN OF THE CHURCH AUCTION ITEMS
Thanks to Marina Scalia for sending this photograph of the painting done by Ben Keys to celebrate her daughter's wedding. Sarah and Erik Hallenbeck were married on August 2, 2014. The artist started painting the church on Friday. After the ceremony, he came to the reception and added the bride, groom, and other members from the wedding party.
